

CPYRGHT

Vegas-Area Mishaps

Air Force jet pilots y escaped death yes- Atomic Energy Commissi n separate accidents rigidly guarded experime to malfunctioning area at Groom Lake, 100 m nt. north of here and was ent. Robert E. Wilcox turned to the base in g condition by helicopter. The other mishap occur from his F-100 Super at the Indian Springs ater reporting a mal- Force Base 45 miles no t of here when 1st Lt. i rgatroyd was forced t into the runway crier when his landings ed to function. He also

Vegas-Area Mishc

Air Force jet pilots cer. He parachuted y escaped death yes- Atomic Energy Comm in separate accidents rigidly guarded exp t to malfunctioning area at Groom Lake, north of here and ent. Robert E. Wilcox turned to the base from his F-100 Super condition by helicop ater reporting a mal- The other mishap e Indian Spr Base 45 mil of here when L atroyd was f into the runw r when his lan

ape Deal Accidents

3 AIR FORCE B/ rch 3 (UPI)—Two et pilots narer death today in cidents blamed ioning equipmer A Robert E. Wil rom his F-100 Su er, reporting a He parachuted i do energy com: idly guarded ex: urea at Groom L north of Las Ves returned to the b condition by t ver mishap occur ndian Springs se, 45 miles noi as Vegas, when Murgatroyd jury from cal Mishaps

o Nellis Air Force Base pl ed injury this morning i of accidents involving F Sabres, one pilot bai and the other riding his gh a crash barrier at Springs Air Force Base at - Lieutenant Robert ox ejected from his F-100 eporting a "malfunction" et and landed safely in t about five miles n Groom Lake, about north of Las Vegas. mic Energy Commi nnel in the area reports ed the pilot and were tr ng him out of the deso n to a point where he o icked up by Nellis res is. The second, almost an ous accident, First Lieut Donald Murgatroyd cras gh the landing barrier n Springs base when